Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 7 March 2005 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Pat. No. 6,820,148 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: as for claims 1 and generally 24, the prior art does not show normally transferring commands that control operation of the electronic circuit cards from the host to an individual card over the command circuit when connected between the host and the plurality of sockets except when unique addresses of the individual cards are being defined by communication between the host and the cards one at a time over the command circuit that is alternately connected to one of the plurality of sockets at a time.

3. As for claims 5 and 38, the prior art does not show storing within the individual electronic circuit cards a characteristic of a number of data contacts thereof through which data are transferable in parallel.

4. As for claim 34, the prior art does not show a number generator within the enclosure that generates and writes the card address into the storage device during initialization of the card.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
